

Police and NHW success

Written by Scott Blair

The police have arrested the possible thieves who using a "blue UK registered volkswagon passat car" had committed a number of crimes on the Costa Blanca - the Neighbourhood Watch in Spain had circulated the details of this car at the beginning of January which helped the tracking down of the car - teamwork at its best for the safety of us all.

