

Latest crime techniques

Written by Scott Blair

It would appear that, within the province of Alicante, thieves are making use of specialist locksmith tools to gain entry to properties. These tools can now be easily purchased over the internet without control! Whilst this is a difficult problem to combat, awareness can help and it is suggested in the article that homeowners make use of 'double locks' and other security measures which go towards making life a little more difficult for thieves.